Hongkong, 27th February, 1892. [

prise a medicine much if it had no virtue? I can only say that I found what they said to be true. After beginning with Syrup, relief soon followed. My food digestes better, and gave me more strength, and by degrees with it all my pain disappeared, and I could eat my food with a relish, and everything agreed with me. Now again when, through confinement and hard work, I feel a touch of the old complaint I take a dose or two of Seigal's Syrup and the trouble goes no further. Since the publication of my testimonial many persons have called at my house and enquired what is published about me, and it is true that if the Proprietors of Seigal's Syrup had made additions to my statement.

I tell them all that every word was true and nothing had been added by the Proprietors of the medicine, but I could add a few more words for no consideration, what the sufferings were during the long year. I never expected to be well again in this world. Seigal's Syrup saved my life, and I desire other sufferers to know of what did so much for me. I will gladly answer inquiries.

And I make this solemn declaration upon the same being the same to be true, by virtue of the provisions of the Statutory Declaration Act (Will, IV, c. 62).

(Signed) MARY CUDY.
Declared before me at Leeds, in the County of York, by the said Mary Cuday, on Monday, the 10th day of August, 1891.

(Signed) Alf. COOPER.
Master of Leeds.

Not a syllable further is needed except to say that she allured, indigested and dyspepsia, burdens and saddens the lives of many other women (and men also), who will read with new hope the outcome of Mrs. Cuday's case, and place a confidence which no coaxing can shake in the remedy which restored to her the health and happiness which Providence destined for us all.
